REVENUE DEPARTMENT

NOTIFICATIONS

Simla-4, the 14th December, 1956

No. R. 86-6 56.—The Financial Commissioner, Himachal Pradesh, with the previous sanction of the Lieutenant Governor, Himachal Pradesh, is pleased to make the rules as in the Annexure to regulate the supply of copies of record under the control of the Financial Commissioner, Himachal Pradesh.

* These rules shall come into force from the date of its publication in the Gazette.

By order,
BASANT RAI,
Assistant Secretary.

"ANNEXURE"

Rules for the supply of copies of records under the control of the Financial Commissioner, Himachal Pradesh.

1. INTRODUCTORY

1. These rules may be called the Copying Agency Rules for the office of the Financial Commissioner, Himachal Pradesh.

2. In these rules:—

- (a) 'Records' means and includes any portion of a record and any document, map, plan or other paper attached to, or forming part of the record of any case, suit, appeal, enquiry, trial or other proceedings in any revenue court or office subordinate to as well as in the court and office of the Financial Commissioner, Himachal Pradesh.
- (b) 'Copying Agency' means the branch in the office of the Financial Commissioner, Himachal Pradesh, meant for the supply of copies of records to the litigant public.
- (c) 'Officer-in-charge' means the head of the Copying Agency and the Assistant Secretary (Revenue) to Himachal Pradesh Administration shall be deemed to be such an officer.
- (d) 'Copying Supervisor' means the Clerk of Court or in his absence such official as may be appointed by the Financial Commissioner, Himachal Pradesh.
- (e) 'Copying Agent' means the clerk appointed to keep regular accounts in the registers prescribed under these rules.
- (f) 'Examiner' means the Translator authorised to examine copies of records with originals in the office of the Financial Commissioner, Himachal Pradesh.
- (g) 'Court' means the court of the Financial Commissioner, Himachal Pradesh.

2A. Responsibility of Assistant Secretary (Revenue) to Himachal Pradesh Administration.—The Assistant Secretary (Revenue) to Himachal Pradesh Administration being the office-in-charge of the Copying Agency, shall be responsible for making proper arrangements to meet the convenience to the litigant public, requiring copies of records in the Financial Commissioner's office.

2. PERSONS ENTITLED TO OBTAIN COPIES OF RECORDS

3. (i) Grant of a copy of record to persons entitled.—A copy of record shall be granted in the manner prescribed by these rules to any person who, under the law for the time being in force, or under these rules, is entitled to receive it.

(ii) Persons entitled to obtain copies.—A plaintiff or a defendant who has appeared in a case, or a suit, is entitled during the pendency of the suit, to obtain copies of the records of the case or suit including documents, exhibited in evidence by the court.

Note.—A party to a case or suit who has been ordered to file a written statement is not entitled to get a copy of the written statement of his opponent until he has first filed his own.

(iii) When a stranger to a case can obtain copies of records.—A stranger to a case or suit may, after decree or passing of an order, obtain copies of the plaint, pleas, written statements, affidavits and petitions filed in the case or suit, as also copies of judgments, decrees or orders; but copies of documents, exhibited in evidence shall not be granted except with the consent of the person by whom they were produced. He may also, for sufficient reasons shown to the satisfaction of the court, obtain copies of such documents before decree or order.

(iv) Grant of copies of orders passed under the Land Revenue and Tenancy Acts by competent authority.—Copies of the orders passed by a competent authority on proceedings under the Land Revenue and Tenancy Acts shall be granted. But copies of records and recommendations made by Revenue Officers to their superior officers in connection with such proceedings shall not be given, unless, in the opinion of the officer by whom the order was passed, they are necessary for the understanding of his order.

(v) Supply of copies of documents to persons having litigation with Government.—Except with the previous sanction of the Financial Commissioner, no copies of documents shall be supplied to any person not otherwise entitled to them, between whom and Government there is any likelihood of litigation.

(vi) Supply of copies of privileged documents.—Official letters are privileged documents, copies of which no person has any claim whatsoever. Should it be desirable to grant copy of a letter or of an extract of a letter received from a superior officer, reference should in every case be made to the superior officer for permission.

3. APPLICATIONS FOR COPIES OF RECORDS

4. Manner of applying for copies of records.—An application for a copy of a record may be made in person or by post or through an agent authorised to act for the person who is entitled to it. The full name, parentage and address of the applicant should be given and it should also be stated if the copy is required for 'private use'. The application shall be made in form C.D. 1, which can be had on payment of six pies per copy from licenced stamp vendors. Applications which contain all the required particulars but are not in the prescribed form should, however, not be returned.

5. One application to be made for copies of records concerning a single cause or matter.—Only one application need be made for copies of papers concerning a single cause or matters which are in the same record; e. g., if copies are required of for separate papers in one record, only one application is necessary.

6. Stamping of applications for copies.—Each application for grant of a copy of a record must bear an adhesive court-fee label of four annas leviable under article 1(a) Schedule II to the Court-fees Act.

4. PROCEDURE ON RECEIPT OF APPLICATIONS

7. Applications for copies to be received by whom.—Applications for copies shall be received by such official as may be appointed by the Financial Commissioner and in absence from headquarters by an official of the court as may be authorised by the Financial Commissioner. They shall satisfy themselves that the applicant is entitled to the copy applied for by him.

8 (i) On receipt, the application shall be scrutinised by such official as may be appointed by the Financial Commissioner or in his absence by an official of the court as may be authorised by the Financial Commissioner who shall return it—

- (a) if the original of which a copy if applied for, is not traceable;
- (b) if the name of the village or the date of the order noted in the application does not appear to be correct;
- (c) if any other information is necessary.

Note.—Application shall not, however, be returned where the court fee stamps borne on them are not properly endorsed by the stamp vendors. In such cases the matter shall be referred to the Collectors of the Districts concerned for proceedings against the stamp vendor under section 34 of the Court-fees Act.

(ii) If the application does not require to be returned or after its resubmission, such official as may be appointed by the Financial Commissioner shall, if the copy can be given, order it to be prepared.

(iii) Rejection of application for copies.—If a copy of a record applied for cannot be given under the law or the application does not contain the required information, it shall be rejected by such official as may be appointed by the Financial Commissioner, as the case may be.

(iv) Official appointed by the Financial Commissioner to take the orders of Financial Commissioner in case of doubt.—In any case in which a genuine doubt arises, or the sanction of higher authority is required to the grant of the copy of a record, the official appointed by the Financial Commissioner shall take the orders of the Financial Commissioner.

5. REALISATION OF THE COST OF COPIES

9. Payment of copying fee in advance.—(i) Every application for a copy of a record shall, as far as possible, bear in advance a court-fee stamp of Rs. 5 as the cost of preparing the certifying such copy. This fee shall be in addition to any 'Urgent' or 'Search' fee and the four annas court-fee stamp leviable under rule 6.

Note.—In cases where fee at a flat rate is not prescribed the cost of the copy shall be assessed by the Assistant Secretary (Revenue) to Himachal Pradesh Administration under rule 37 (ii) infra.

(ii) In the case of a person who desires to take delivery of the copy personally, the Copying Agent after ascertaining the cost of the copy shall communicate it to the applicant with the least possible delay, and shall direct that court-fee stamps of the requisite amount be affixed to the application. After this has been done the preparation of the copy shall be taken in hand.

(iii) If the application for a copy is received by post the Copying Agent shall similarly assess the cost of the copy, after consulting the relevant files. He shall indicate the cost of copy on the application which shall then be returned in original to the applicant. In all such cases the registration charges shall also be included in the cost of the copy as well as the amount of service postage stamps used in returning the application. When the application is received back bearing the requisite court-fee stamps, it shall be duly registered for preparation of the copy applied for. A receipt in form C.D. 10 shall be issued at the same time by the Translator. The amount received by money order need not, however, be acknowledged in form C.D. 10 In such cases the money order coupon signed by the Translator will serve the purpose of a receipt.

(iv) No urgent fee shall be accepted unless presented in court-fee stamps with the application for a copy.

10. (i) Grant of refunds.—If an applicant withdraws his application after a copy has been prepared, no refund shall be allowed; but when it has not been prepared the amount shall be refunded after deducting one-fourth. The refund may be made personally or by postal money order after deducting the money order commission.

All funds shall be granted under the orders of the Assistant Secretary or in his absence by the Clerk of Court, in form C.D. 9. The treasurer of the office shall hold a permanent advance of Rs. 50 for this purpose.

(ii) Manner of preparation of refund vouchers.—Refunds shall be made by the Copying Supervisor (Clerk of Court) or in his absence by such official as may be appointed by the Financial Commissioner out of the imprest kept with the treasurer of the office which shall be recouped by means of a contingent bill on the last working day of the month or earlier if necessary. The contingent bill shall be classified as debitable to the head XLVII-Miscellaneous Departments-Deduct Funds. The refund vouchers (C.D. 9) shall be prepared in all cases in which a refund is actually made either in person or by money order.

The particulars entered in the refund bill shall be verified by such official as may be appointed by the Financial Commissioner, countersigned by the Clerk of Court, and the pay order passed by the Assistant Secretary.

(iii) Cancellation of refund orders.—All refund orders shall be cancelled at the time of recouping the advance. The word 'Cancelled' shall be written in red ink or stamped with a rubber stamp of suitable size across each order, by such official as may be appointed by the Financial Commissioner and initialled by the Clerk of Court.

(iv) Disposal of undelivered money orders.—(a) The amount of undelivered money orders shall be credited in the permanent advance by making a reverse entry (in red ink) in the permanent advance register C.D. 4 which shall be kept and maintained personally by such official as may be appointed by the Financial Commissioner and also by making a note in the relevant refund voucher C.D. 9.

(b) Time limit for refunds.—If the amount of refund is not claimed within a period of three months from the date, it was sanctioned, it shall lapse and no further claim in respect thereof shall be considered.

Note.—Punching and cancellation of court-fee stamps.

The court-fee stamps affixed to the applications for copies shall be punched and cancelled immediately on receipt by such official as may be appointed by the Financial Commissioner, as the case may be, in the manner prescribed by Section 30 of the Court-fees Act, read with rule 1, chapter 14-C of the High Court Rules and Orders, Volume IV.

11. (1) Maintenance of Register C.D. 6—Modes of punching and cancellation of court-fee stamps—Maintenance of guard file.—The Copying Agent shall maintain a register in form C.D. 6 for payments received by money order or through V.P.P. He shall then convert all such payments into court-fee stamps, affix them to the application, then cancel the court-fee stamps, affixed to it by punching out the figure-head 50 as to leave the amount designated on the stamp untouched and the part removed by punching shall be burnt or otherwise destroyed. As an additional precaution, the cancelling officer shall affix his signature and the date across each label, at the time of cancellation in durable ink. He shall then hand over the application to the translator against the letter's receipt in register C.D. 6. The money order and the V.P.P. coupons should be pasted in a separate guard file and numbered serially. The Clerk of Court or in his absence such official as may be appointed by the Financial Commissioner shall check register C.D. 6 fortnightly and initial in the remarks column.

(2) Stock of receipt books in form C.D. 10 and maintenance of register C.D. 12.—The receipt book in form C.D. 10 shall contain 200 receipts, with a consecutive receipt number printed on each receipt and counterfoil. The stock of these books shall remain in the personal custody of such official as may be appointed by the Financial Commissioner who shall keep an account of receipts and issues in form C.D. 12.

(3) Retention of counterfoils of receipts, etc., for audit.—The counterfoils of receipts, issues and payment orders duly completed shall be similarly retained by the Translator and produced for audit.

12. Translator's duties.—If a copy is ordered, the Translator shall—

- (a) endorse or cause to be endorsed thereon the date and, in the case of urgent applications the time, of presentation;
- (b) initial the endorsement;
- (c) cause the application to be registered as herein-after provided;
- (d) cause the court-fee stamp (if affixed) thereon to be cancelled according to law; and
- (e) obtain from the applicant, a non-judicial stamp, if required.

13. Applicant to be informed of the date and time of delivery of copy.—If a copy is ordered to be prepared, the Copying Agent shall, in the case of personal applications tell the applicant the date and time the copy is likely to be ready for delivery. This shall, however, ordinarily be not later than the third working day. But an applicant for urgent copy, provided his application is present with the urgent fee within the first two hours of the working day, shall be entitled to have his copy before the close of the same day, if possible, if the application be presented later, the copy shall be furnished, if possible in the forenoon of the following working day.

14. Maintenance of register C.D. 2.—A register in form C.D. 2 shall be maintained by the Copying Agent in which every application filed for a copy of a record, shall, whether sanctioned or not be entered forthwith. It is not necessary to maintain separate registers for English and vernacular copies. Columns 1-6 of this register shall be written up in respect of each application as soon as orders regarding the disposal of the application have been passed under rule 8 (ii) or 8 (iii). Column 7 and onwards shall be written up as soon as the copy is ready for delivery. At the end of each month the Copying Agent shall total column 23 and enter the total in the column below the last entry in red ink. At the beginning of each month, the Copying Agent shall enter afresh in this register all previous entries made in the register not disposed of at the end of the previous month, and shall cancel the previous entries in their respective places. The entries made at the beginning of April each year shall, however, be numbered afresh giving the respective old numbers (as 599/1).

15. Rejection of application for copies to be notified to the applicant—description of applications—return of incomplete applications.—If for any reason any application is rejected or it be impossible to prepare the copy asked for, the fact shall be noted across the columns of register C.D. 2 and an appropriate reply sent to the applicant by means of a post-card. The amount on account of the cost of copying, registration and V.P.P. charges shall be refunded to the applicant, after deducting the usual money order commission. Column 6 of register C.D. 4 shall be entered up. The receipt obtained through the post office shall be carefully filed. Such applications shall be destroyed by such official as may be appointed by the Financial Commissioner after one month in the presence of the Clerk of Court. Incomplete applications shall, however, be returned to the applicants by bearing post.

6. MANNER OF MAKING COPIES

16. Preparation of copies by copyists—Qualifications of Copying Agent.—The copies of records applied for shall be prepared by a clerk of clerks known as copyists, specially the Copying Agent should at least be a matriculate, having a good and neat handwriting. He should be able to typewrite at least at the speed of 45 words a minute. His character should also be thoroughly verified.

Every copy made under these rules shall—

- (a) if in English, be written in a good legible hand or typed;

- (b) if in Urdu, be written in Nastalik style;

- (c) if in Hindi, be written in good legible Devnagri script;

- (d) be written with ink of a good quality; and

- (e) be written or typed on Government water-marked paper, meant for preparing copies, except in the cases provided for in rules 19 and 20.

(ii) Marginal reference shall be made on the copy to the paging of the original.

(iii) If more than one copy of the same record is ordered to be prepared at the same time, as much use as possible should be made of duplicating processes.

17. A heading containing a short description of the record to be prefixed to a copy.—To every copy made under these rules shall be prefixed a heading containing a short description of record, the name and hadbast number of the estate and the name of the tehsil and district to which such record relates. In the case of a copy of a judgment or order, such heading shall also contain the following particulars:—

- (a) the court or office by which the case was decided, giving the name and powers of the presiding officer, and in an appellate case, the name and official designation of the officer whose order was appealed against and the date of that order;
- (b) the date of the institution of the suit, proceeding or appeal as the case may be;
- (c) the name and description of the parties; and
- (d) the subject matter of the suit of proceeding and the estate, tehsil and district in which situate.

18. Copying Agent shall have no access to the Vernacular Record Room.—The Copying Agent shall in no circumstances be allowed access to the record room. Files shall be given to him on requisition by the Vernacular Record Keeper. No files or parts of files shall be removed by the Copying Agent from the vernacular record room. The Translator shall be responsible for the safe custody and careful handling of all files given to the Copying Agent.

19. Translator responsible for safe custody of files.—Copies of records which are kept in tabular form shall be supplied on the forms used in Government Offices.

20. Supply of copies of forms—forms for copies of decrees and heading of opening sheets.—Copies of decrees; and headings of 'opening sheets' in revenue records; and others should be at the discretion of such official as may be appointed by the Financial Commissioner or in his absence the Translator be given on such forms as are indicated in rule 17.

21. Supply of a copy of copy.—A copy of a record shall never be granted unless expressly asked for, as for instance in order to call in question the correctness of the copy granted. The fact that it is so required shall particularly be entered in the heading.

22. Sheets of papers on which copy is made to be stitched together in book form.—If a copy covers more than one sheet of paper the sheets of paper on which the copy is made should be stitched together in book form, and should not be attached one to the end of the other so as to form a roll.

23. Particulars be endorsed on a copy.—After the copy has been made, and before, it has been revised and attested, the following particulars shall be endorsed thereon in the case of copies made in the English language, in English, and in the case of copies made in Urdu or Hindi in that language:—

- (a) the number of the application in register C.D. 2.
- (b) the date of presentation of the application for a copy;
- (c) the number of words or pages;
- (d) fees due

}	(1) Copying fees, Rs.
}	(2) Urgent-fees, Rs.
}	(3) Search fee, Rs.

- (e) name of the copyist;
- (f) date on which the copy was completed by the copyist; and
- (g) the cause of delay, if the copy has been completed after the third day from the date of application.

7. REVISION AND ATTESTATION OF COPIES

24. Translator to examine and certify copies.—A copy shall not be delivered to any person until it has been examined, certified, stamped and paged. The official entrusted with this duty will be the Translator who shall be responsible for the compliance in all respects, of the provisions of the law and of these rules and orders.

25. Translator to compare and attest copies.—The Translator shall, before he attests any copy in the manner prescribed by these rules:—

- (a) personally compare such copies with the original record from which it has been made. For the purpose of facilitating the comparison of any copy, the Copying Agent or the copyist who made it may be called upon to assist by reading out the original;
- (b) attest every alteration made in such copy by initialling the same;
- (c) examine and initial the endorsements made upon the copy in accordance with these rules;
- (d) examine the headings and form of the copy, and see that they are in accordance with the law, rules and directions applying to such copy;
- (e) see that the copy is written unless typed, on the prescribed quality of paper with ink of good quality and in neat legible handwriting;
- (f) See that the fees have been correctly calculated and entered in the register;

26. Endorsement on copies to be made by the Translator.—When any copy is found to be in all respects correct and ready for delivery to the applicant, the Translator shall endorse thereon the following words:—

“Certified to be a true copy.”

and shall sign and date the endorsement, and subscribe his official designation, below which he shall endorse the following words:—

“Authorised by Section 76 of the Indian Evidence Act, 1872.”

He shall then cause the proper seal to be affixed to the copy. If the copy covers more than one sheet of paper, the revising and attesting official shall endorse the word “Attested” on every such sheet, and shall set his initials and the date thereunder. He shall at the same time cancel the court-fee stamps, if not already done, representing the cost of the copy.

27. Defective copies to be cancelled.—In the event of any copy being found to be unfit for issue by reason that it—

- (a) has not been clearly, legibly and neatly written or typed;
- (b) is not in the prescribed form or on paper of the prescribed quality;
- (c) is so incorrect that revision has rendered it unfit for issue;
- (d) does not conform to these rules and orders; or
- (e) is otherwise open to objection;

the Translator shall forthwith write the word “Cancelled” across the copy and a fresh copy shall be made.

28. (i) Certificate of accuracy of a copy.—The affixing by the Translator of his signature to a copy is a certificate that the official has personally satisfied himself of its accuracy and that the copy has been personally compared by him.

(ii) Disciplinary action to be taken against officials.—To ensure correctness of copies, warning shall be issued to officials who fail to prepare or attest copies properly. Disciplinary action should be taken against official in whose case a warning proves ineffectual.

8. DELIVERY OF COPIES AND ADJUSTMENT OF COSTS

29. Mode of cancellation of stamps on copies issued by the Copying Agency.—The Copying Agent shall, before any copy is delivered to an applicant in person or despatched by post endorse thereon the date of such delivery or despatch and cancel the court-fee labels, if any, affixed to it under Articles 6-9 of Schedule I of the Court Fees Act or Article 2 4of Schedule I-A of the Stamp Act, by punching out a portion of the label in such a manner as to remove neither the figure head nor that part of the label on which its value is expressed. As an additional precaution, the signature of the Copying Agent attesting the document, with the date, shall be written across the label, and upon the paper on either side of it.

Note.—Care should be taken to distinguish between the modes of cancellation of court-fee stamps affixed to applications for copies and on copies issued by the Copying Agency.

30. Adjustment of fees.—The Copying Agent shall then proceed to adjust the charge of the copy and will include in it search fee, if any, and make out the final account for the preparation of the copy or copies. He will then call for the applicant and demand the court fee, if any, leviable under Articles 6-9, Schedule I to the Court Fees Act, in respect of such copy and cause the same to be affixed to the copy. The court-fee stamps so affixed shall be duly punched and cancelled in the manner laid down in rule 29. The copy shall then be delivered to the applicant. The delivery of the copy will also be attested by such official as may be appointed by the Financial Commissioner in column 25 of register C. D. 2.

The amount of refund, if any, shall be paid in cash to the applicant in the presence of the Clerk of Court, if the copy is delivered in person and the payees receipt taken in the space provided for the purpose in form C. D. 9.

31. Procedure to be adopted in case the copy is not taken by the applicant.—Should the applicant be not present when first called to receive the copy, his name shall be called on three successive days, and if he fails to present himself within the period, the copy and the balance, if any, to be refunded shall be sent to him by post deducting postage charges from the refund due. The payees receipt obtained through the post office will be pasted on the payment order in form C.D. 9. If, however, there is no balance to be refunded of the amount due is not sufficient to cover money order commission and other postage charges, his application shall be filed and the copy shall not be given to him until a fresh application duly stamped with a court-fee stamp of Re. 0-4-0 is made.

32. Copies sent by post.—In cases where the copy has been applied for by post the copy, when duly made, revised and attested, shall be sent to the applicant by post, after adjusting the cost of preparing and sending the copy and the cost of money order commission. The payees receipt obtained through the post office shall be pasted on the payment order in form C.D. 9.

33. Period for preservation of sanctioned applications.—Except as provided in rule 15, sanctioned applications for copies shall not be destroyed until a Stamp Auditor has audited the records and registers concerning them even when audit has been carried out earlier, such applications shall be kept for three years. At the end of this period or after the audit, if the audit is not completed within three years, the Assistant Secretary (Revenue) to the Himachal Pradesh Administration shall have such applications destroyed in his presence, and shall certify their destruction in the manner prescribed in rule 27 of the Punjab Stamp Refund, Renewal and Disposal Rules, 1934, reproduced in Chapter 7, Part III of the Punjab Stamp Manual, as applied to Himachal Pradesh.

Note.—Sanctioned applications shall be kept by the Copying Agent under lock and key.

34. Maintenance of Register C.D. 5 by copyists.—A register of work done by the copyists shall be maintained in form C.D. 5. The register shall be written up daily. In column 3 the letter 'D' should be entered against entries of copies other than the first on a duplicator. Separate registers in form C.D. 5 shall be maintained for English and Vernacular copyists, respectively.

Daily outturn of copyists.—At the end of each month the Copying Agent shall total the columns of the register or registers in this form with a view to judging the outturn of the copyists.

9. ATTESTING OFFICER OF COPIES

35. Translator to be the revising and attesting official.—The Translator shall be revising and attesting official of copies of records for the purposes of these rules.

10. SUPERVISION

36. Copying supervisor and his duties.—(i) The Clerk of Court being the Copying Supervisor for the purposes of these rules, shall supervise the working of the Copying Agency in the office of the Financial Commissioner, Himachal Pradesh.

(ii) He shall in addition to the other duties herein prescribed—

- examine the registers fortnightly, particularly registers C.D. 2 and 3;
- see that copies are supplied within three days of the date of application unless he shall, for sufficient reason have allowed further time in any particular case;
- see that court-fee stamps have correctly been affixed to applications and copies and that they have been duly punched and cancelled in accordance with the law and rules;
- supervise the Copying Agent, the Translator and the copyists in the discharge of their duties and report any dereliction of duty on the part of any member of the Copying Agency to the Financial Commissioner through the Assistant Secretary (Revenue) to Himachal Pradesh Administration.
- take suitable measures to have the rules promptly and carefully complied with by the staff of the Copying Agency.

11. FEES

37. (i) Scale of fees.—Every copy of a record shall be supplied at a uniform flat rate of Rs. 5 irrespective of the nature of the judgment and the length of the document of which a copy is asked for. This rate shall also be applicable to copies of orders involving first appointment or promotion or dismissal passed by the Financial Commissioner and other orders relating to establishment, as well as copies of orders which may be considered fit for publication. Copies of record required by Government will be prepared by the Copying Agent free of charge.

(ii) Assistant Secretary to fix fees in certain cases.—For copies of field maps, boundry maps and tabular works, a special fee, which should always be a multiple of two annas, shall be fixed by the Assistant Secretary (office-in-charge). He shall endorse it with his own hand on the application for the copy.

(iii) Urgent copies to take precedence over other copying work.—Applications for 'urgent' copies should take precedence over other copying work. Applicants for urgent copies shall pay an extra fee of two rupees in court-fee stamps. Such fees should be accounted for immediately on receipt as income in column 7 of register C.D. 3 and entered in column 11 of register C.D. 2. The applicant shall, however, be entitled to refund of the urgent fee so paid, if for any reason whatever the copy in respect of which such fee was paid is not ready for delivery to him by the fourth day after the filing of the application.

Note.—(1) For the purposes of the above rule, the extra fee to be charged shall be for each document which can properly be regarded as a separate paper, e.g., every deposition of a witness or written statement of a party or order of the court is a separate paper. In cases of doubt as to a paper is separate or not the Assistant Secretary shall decide.

- If two or three English typewritten copies of a document are asked for there should be only one urgent fee. If the copies asked for are from four to six, the urgent fee should be twice as much and so on. In the case of Urdu or Hindi (vernacular) script, urgent fee should be charged for each copy.

(iv) Levy of search fee.—A search fee of Re 1 may be imposed under the orders of the Clerk of Court or in his absence the official as may be appointed by the Financial Commissioner in cases in which an unreasonable amount of trouble has been caused in finding out the original record. In such cases the search fee payable shall be certified by the vernacular record keeper who shall recover it from the applicant in court fee stamps and affix it to the application concerned. He shall also punch and cancel the court-fee labels in the manner indicated in rule 11(1).

The record of such fees shall be regularly kept by the Copying Agent in columns 21 and 8 of registers C.D. 2 and 3 respectively.

Note.—Copies of vernacular documents shall be supplied in Roman Urdu if required.

12. ACCOUNTS

38. Maintenance of Register C.D. 3.—A register of daily receipts in form C.D. 3 shall be maintained by the Copying Agent. All receipts on account of copying, urgent, and search fees shall invariably be accounted for in the register and totalled daily.

Only one register shall be kept in this form. The total receipts shall be attested punctually by the Clerk of Court or in his absence by such official as may be appointed by the Financial Commissioner in column 10 of the register.

39. Keeping of accounts in register C.D. 6.—A register for the adjustment of amounts received from applicants by money order or V.P.P. shall be maintained by the Copying Agent in form C.D. 6.

40. Monthly check of accounts by C.O.C. and quarterly review by Assistant Secretary.—The Clerk of Court shall check the accounts of the month in the first week of the following month and certify to this effect below the entries in register C.D. 3. The accounts shall also be reviewed quarterly by the Assistant Secretary.

13. TRANSLATION

41. Levy of translation fee.—Where a copy is asked for in a language other than that of the original, the copying fee shall be double the rates prescribed for copies whether or not a translation already exists on the file. Such applications shall be entered regularly in register C.D. 2 and distinguished by the letter 'T' in column 9 of the register.

14. REGISTERS

42. Maintenance of registers only in printed prescribed forms.—No registers shall be maintained except those prescribed in these rules. A dak bahi and stamp register shall, however, be maintained in addition to these registers.

The forms of registers will be the same as those prescribed for District Copying Agencies with necessary changes.

Note.—The forms and registers to be used under the rules are given in Appendix IX.
